

Name:

Seam/Seam Finishes

Date:

Sample #8

Sewing in Parallel

This sample of the bodice top shows how sewing in parallel shapes or lines can be easily done. In this sample the width of the presser foot has been used to create parallel lines, both curved and straight. This principle can be applied to many fabrics to create wonderful decorative design details. The same principle can be used to create diamond shapes, squares, etc.